

FirstShot Centers, LLC Announces a Placement Partner Program of Digital Securities for Big Box Store Acquisitions

Las Vegas, Nevada--(Newsfile Corp. - October 1, 2020) - FirstShot Centers, LLC "FirstShot" announces the engagement of three (3) financial placement partners by FirstShot for a private placement financing conducted pursuant to Regulation D of the US Securities Act of 1933 of up to $100 million USD. The private placement partners are experienced professionals who are contracted on a full time basis and work from offices located in Las Vegas, Europe and Canada.

FirstShot is offering an interest-bearing digital security for the financing of acquisitions and repurposing of empty and undervalued big box retail properties located in the United States.

The offering documentation for the private placement provides for the purchase by Accredited Investors of 100 million FirstShot Tokens at a price of $1 per token for a total of $100 million USD, to be followed by three (3) more identical offerings for a total of $400 million. Sales and purchases may only be made by Accredited Investors pursuant to the Private Placement Memorandum.

FirstShots' business model is to acquire, repurpose and manage malls and big box stores throughout the United States. The financing model of digital securities is another important piece of the overall business opportunity.
